

Transfer Student Advisory Council

The mission of the Transfer Student Advisory Council is to review, research, evaluate, develop and implement best practices for transfer students' retention and graduation with the University of South Carolina.

Overview

The Transfer Student Advisory Council (TSAC) is a Provost-appointed coordinating council of twelve offices across the USC Columbia campus that meet regularly to discuss and review the transfer student experience from recruitment to graduation. TSAC has been informing and implementing university policy and procedures since 2019.

Membership

- Representatives from the University Advising Center
- Representatives from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions
- Representatives from the College of Arts & Sciences including academic advisors
- Representative from the College of Education including academic advisors
- Representatives from the College of Hospitality, Retail and Sport Management including academic advisors
- Representatives from the Student Success Center, Transfer Student Services
- University Advisor from Arnold School of Public Health
- Representatives from Enrollment Data Analytics
- Representatives from New Student Orientation
- Representatives from other university offices including Financial Aid, GARNET, National Resource Center, University Registrar, Access and Opportunity, and Career Center

	Transfer Resources
	The University Advisement Center Transfer Advising website provides resources for students, advisors, colleges, and others. https://sc.edu/about/offices_and_divisions/advising/transfer_advising/index.php
	The Office of Undergraduate Admissions website provides resources for prospective students and constituents. https://sc.edu/about/offices_and_divisions/undergraduate_admissions/apply_for_transfers/index.php
	The South Carolina Commission of Higher Education established a Transfer Excellence Center based on the recommendations of the ad hoc state transfer task force to provide central resources to all involved in transfer work and will continue to expand transfer resources. https://che.sc.gov/transfer