

Elsie Taber Fellowship

Graduate Student Travel Fund, Biological Sciences

Funds can be used for:

1. support for attending international meetings
2. attending workshops or courses
3. expenses associated with collaborative research in a lab away from USC.

Student Name: _____ USC ID number: _____

Current Program: M.S. ____ PhD. ____ Start Term: _____

Current Support: TA. ____ RA. ____ Fellowship (name): _____

Advisor's Name: _____

Proposed Activity: _____

Dates: From: _____ To: _____

Estimated Cost: $ _____ Funds Requested: _____

Students Signature: _____ Date: _____

Advisor's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Requests should include:

- 1) A letter requesting support and describing the proposed activity, including how the activity will contribute to your educational experience.
- 2) A letter from your advisor supporting the application
- 3) Activity-related documents as appropriate: such as a budget/ expected expenses, meeting or workshop description, notice of acceptance to workshop, indication of whether you will be presenting your work (poster or talk), course or workshop syllabus description.

Applicants, if eligible, must apply for travel funds from the graduate school when applying for Taber funds.

Recipients must submit an activity report upon returning

Application form and relevant materials should be submitted to the Director of Graduate Studies