

Holocaust and Genocide Awareness Week

“Holocaust Memory in Eastern Europe”

A talk by Jelena Subotic, Ph.D.

TUESDAY

January 24

4:30 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Gambrell Hall

Room 429

Jelena Subotić is a Professor in the Department of Political Science at Georgia State University. She writes broadly about international relations theory, memory politics, human rights, transitional justice, international ethics, state identity, and the politics of the Western Balkans.

Her recent book, Yellow Star, Red Star: Holocaust Remembrance after Communism (Cornell UP: 2019) has received several awards and high praise. The book explains how East European countries after the collapse of communism pursued new strategies of Holocaust remembrance where the memory, symbols, and imagery of the Holocaust became appropriated to represent crimes of communism.

Walker Institute

College of Arts and Sciences